Mission Statement

The Grandmont Community Association (GCA) was formed for the preservation of the neighborhood: promotion of quality schools; civic education of the residents and promotion of cooperation and understanding between all of the residents and community businesses.

GRANDMONT COMMUNITY'S 2015 ANNUAL BUSINESS DINNER MEETING UPDATE

Our eagerly awaited GCA Annual Meeting was held Saturday, April 11, 2015 at Christ the King Church.

It's our yearly "business/social" meeting that re-energizes and reunites neighbors, welcomes new residents to our community, and outlines our progress and activities. This event also elects five new GCA Board Members willing to volunteer their time and energy to create a stronger neighborhood and develop programs to meet upcoming challenges in Grandmont. You need to be included in this process. I believe people appreciated the handicap accessibility that could accommodate more neighbors as well as the "reminder" signs placed throughout the Grandmont Community.

That said, someone, somewhere, is always wondering "Where Waldo Is?" but many people were wondering in Grandmont, "Where YOU were?" We missed you - we need you. Right now, why not make a note for April, 2016 to be present at this community-building event to show your support of all we do as volunteers to make you and your families safer while preserving the integrity of our neighborhood.

Every year our annual meeting shines better and better. Our meeting organizational staff members do an outstanding service for the community residents and every one of us should be proud and thankful for their devotion to duty and appreciate how smoothly the meeting is run. Reports were kept to a minimum thanks to Krystal Thurmond and Barbara Haley-Peterson who provided an attractive, informative "Program Brochure" that included a brief history of Grandmont (which officially became part of Detroit in 1923), President Cora Duncan-Foster's "State of the Community" accomplishments, the meeting agenda, menu, as well as detailed reports from the budget, membership and other vital committees in Grandmont.

While the city is still struggling to get its financial act together, it's comforting to realize that our GCA annual dues of only $25.⁰⁰ are so wisely spent. We achieve so much. Think of the possibilities if EVERYONE contributed their fair share and realized the impact of "strength in numbers!" It's important to remember that every strong and viable neighborhood is organized, has an Association or Block-Club, and has costs associated with providing services to supplement volunteer efforts and hours to improve quality of life issues. Please share and participate in our success as a "good neighbor community" in Grandmont.

APRIL, 2015 PRESIDENT'S REPORT ~ CORA DUNCAN-FOSTER

1. Board members Ethel Smith, Kris Thurmond and I collected dues and RIPPLING HOPE Home Repair Applications at Chaney Library. Presently, 70 applications have been completed for the Grandmont Community Association. RIPPLING HOPE Assessors will be calling to set up an interview with all residents that applied for the free home repair.
2. I sent reminder emails to Stephanie Young, District One Manager Mayor's Office, Ron Brundidge, DPW Director and Tim Dennis, DPW Street Maintenance for the removal of the trash bags from Ramsay Park after the Detroit Partnership Day Cleanup Saturday, March 28th. Stephanie Young forwarded my email to Brad Dick, Director of General Services. The trash was removed on Monday, March 30th.
3. The Detroit Partnership Day on March 28, 2015 was a tremendous success! Synergy and energy were all over the place! The Grandmont Community Family, the team Mr. Muhsin Muhammad mentors, Rosedale Park Residents, University District Volunteers with the help of fifteen University of Michigan Students, cleaned and beautified our Ramsay Park. Marcus Davenport, Principal of Edison Elementary, opened the school for the participants for lunch and restroom needs. He remained until the activity ended. MR. DAVENPORT, WE APPRECIATE YOUR SUPPORT! We couldn't have done this without his facility. Thanks! Kudos to the Grandmont Residents! They were: Valerie Berry, Denise Hytower, Harold James, Julie Janusch, Mark Janusch, Isis King, Jomo King, Milton T. Mayfield Jr., Bernard Morgan, Muhsin Muhammad, Diane Patterson, Robert Patterson, Andre Sharon, Ed Smith, Ethel Smith, Kris Thurmond, Marvin Washington, Carla White-Smith and I, Cora A. Duncan-Foster. Volunteers from other districts included: Diana Brown, Jonathan Brown, Damien Foster, Marco N. Foster, Eleese Gardner, Gary Taylor, Willie Taylor and Trayshawn Taylor. Exceptional job every one! Grandmont thanks you!
4. Neighborhood Safety Meeting was held at 18445 Scarsdale St., on Thursday, March 26, 2015. Pamela Drake, Chief Investigator presented. The Office of the Chief Investigator (OCI) serves as the investigative staff for the Detroit Board of Police Commissioners. The OCI directs the process for receiving and investigating citizen complaints against the Detroit Police Department and its personnel. The staff includes both civilian and sworn investigators. If you have a concern regarding the performance of any Detroit Police employee, you have the right to file a complaint using the following methods:
 -  In-person Visit or Mail Contact Form: The office of the Chief Investigator located at 65 Cadillac Square, 40th Floor, Detroit, MI 48226. You may also visit any Detroit Police entity.
 -  Telephone: (313) 596-2499, Fax: (313) 596-2482
 -  Online: www.ci.detroit.mi.us/police_commissioners
 -  Complaint Form: Complaint forms are available at all Detroit Public Libraries and Detroit Police Department Districts.
 -  You may also have someone else file the complaint form on your behalf.

The staff of the OCI will contact you regarding your complaint once you have submitted this contact form. The form can be hand delivered, mailed or faxed to the OCI. If you decide to speak with someone, you will be referred to a supervisor and provided with a citizen complaint number. All citizen complaints are forwarded to the OCI for investigation. Within seven days of receiving the complaint, the OCI will mail the complainant a copy of the completed Citizen Complaint Report. You will receive information periodically regarding the status of your complaint until the investigation is completed. The findings are then reviewed and approved by a member of the Detroit Board of Police Commissioners. After approval, the OCI will notify you of the investigative findings.

The $6.00 dinner (catered by CJ'S CATERING) was a delicious bargain and we tried to keep costs to a minimum. Mission accomplished! I believe everyone would agree that the perch, wing-dings, black-eyed peas, vegetable fried rice, green beans, corn muffin, beverage and scrumptious cake was well worth that small cost to dine with your neighbors. It was almost too much of a good thing – almost!

The 50-50 raffle provided some extra spending money along with the raffle items from the generous donations of our local businesses including: ELIAS DONUTS, MAGIC CLEANERS, LUCKY BEAUTY SUPPLY, TUBBY'S SUBMARINE, JERRY WEBB'S HANDYMAN SERVICE, ROYAL FRESH MARKET, GRAND RIVER EXPRESS LIQUOR and PANDA'S CHINESE TAKE-OUT. Please let them know we are very grateful for their contribution to our neighborhood. This raffle is always fun and helps defer costs. This year we also provided a table of "free items" for the taking.

To add to the festivities, Stephanie Young, District 1 Manager representing the Mayor and Aaron Hall representing Councilman Tate were in attendance and provided good information, camaraderie and engaged in conversation with neighbors about community. It was nice to be able to have some one-on-one discussions if you so desired. Karen Moore, Community Security Program Manager from the Grandmont-Rosedale Development Corporation (GRDC), spoke briefly about our Neighborhood Safety Meetings held on the 4th Thursday of each month (except for July and August). The next meeting will be May 28th at 6:30 PM at the N. Rosedale Park Community House, 18445 Scarsdale, west of the Southfield Fwy. Safety meetings are open to everyone; resources and information vital to our community are shared at each meeting. Carl & Robyn Zerweck, Directors of RIPLING HOPE, spoke briefly about their program. Both were given awards from the Mayor's office for their extensive community service.

GCA Board nominations from the floor were accepted and prospective board members had a few minutes to speak about themselves and their goals for our community. To all the nominees we say THANK YOU!

Newly elected or re-elected members to the Grandmont Board of Directors who will serve for the next two years are: Jomo King, Kathy Morgan, Joanne Podlucky, Ethel Smith and Charlotte Wright. CONGRATULATIONS!

A motion to amend our Bylaws to eliminate the two-term consecutive maximum limit of Board members was passed. A survey/questionnaire was distributed to gain some thoughts and ideas as to what neighbors expect of our community and its leaders with respect to upcoming goals and activities.
