RIPPLING HOPE

Rippling Hope is an ecumenical neighborhood-focused non-profit ministry with the goal of improving the physical conditions of targeted communities in Detroit by providing minor home improvement. Samples of some home repairs: painting, cleaning gutters, landscaping, vacant home board-ups, and more. The volunteers come from Michigan but also Ohio, Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, and more. This is the eighth year for Rippling Hope Ministries. Cora Duncan-Foster attended the Rippling Hope Leadership Meeting on April 14th and submitted 29 applications for GCA - the most of any other neighborhood. Rippling Hope Volunteers will service 62 different groups in Detroit this year. 330 applications were distributed but at this time only 271 were submitted. Rippling Hope does free home repair year round when they have volunteers. Priority is those not serviced last year.

All home repairs must be assessed by a Rippling Hope Staff Member. On Wednesday, May 2nd, from 10:00am-1:00pm, all 29 Grandmont applicants were assessed. Prior, to this date, Ethel Smith and Regina Pierce assisted in notifying our residents. A huge thank you for their help.

One Rippling Hope Project is to produce library boxes for neighborhoods. This is a small house on a stand with books. The books are free. Rippling Hope needs book donations.

Free paint is available every 2nd Wednesday, 3-5pm & 2nd Saturday 10am-noon at the Rippling Hope Center for Mission and Service, 12801 Joy Road (corner of Joy & Appoline).

All residents receiving free home repair must do sweat equity. This means volunteering to assist the Rippling Hope Staff. Some sweat equity opportunities are: help with dinner, bring in a dinner for a volunteer group one night during summer, setup/cleanup for Rippling Hope Special Event, assist with the yearend financial campaign mailing or give a donation.

Carl Zerweck, Rippling Hope Executive Director, requested for association groups to come when volunteers arrive to help with dinner and talk about Detroit. Every evening after a day of work, there is conversation with the volunteers. Most important is the relationships. They share stories. Some volunteers have been here eight times.

2017 SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

Daniel Kirton, our 2017 Scholarship awardee, graced us with his overwhelming gratitude at the GCA Annual Business Meeting on Saturday, April 14, 2018. Daniel used this scholarship during his first year at Wayne State University where he is pursuing Molecular Cellular Biology with a minor in Chemistry. He is extremely passionate about Stem Cell Research and the cure for cancer. Presently, this extraordinary young man has maintained a 3.0 Grade point average in his studies while working a job late into the evening. Some of his volunteerism was Ramsay Park Cleanups with flower planting, Sigma Beta Club, March of Dimes, Track & Field, and Cross Country.

Grandmont is committed to providing scholarships for our youth. Daniel Kirton is a fine example of our success. The scholarship application is available. Applicants must be a Grandmont Community Association resident. Contact Cora at (313) 273-7914 to receive an application. The deadline date is June 30, 2018.
